

YEARLY REPORT 2011

CITY OF BLUE ASH POLICE DEPARTMENT

4343 Cooper Road, Blue Ash, Ohio 45242

Colonel Chris D. Wallace
Chief of Police

Executive Summary

In 2011, 1,333 criminal and non-criminal reports were taken by the Blue Ash Police Department compared to 1,298 in 2010. The three largest categories for these reports were Theft (27.61%), Non-Criminal (22.4%), and Drug Offenses (13.2%). Of all crime reports, the Department successfully cleared 63%. The FBI Uniform Crime Report for 2010 reveals that in metropolitan counties nationwide, 52.1% of violent crimes were cleared and 17.7% of property crimes were cleared. The Blue Ash Police Department cleared 88% of violent crimes and 41% of property crimes in 2011.

The Department made 1,071 arrests compared to 1,193 in 2010.

Of the arrests, 96% were adults. The average number of arrests made by police departments in the Midwest Region according to the FBI Uniform Crime Report for 2010 was 4,024.4 per 100,000 residents, or 0.040244 for each resident. With the population of Blue Ash being 12,114 in the 2010 U.S. Census Report, this would place the average number of arrests for the Department at 488. Therefore, the Department made over twice the Midwest Region average number of arrests.

The Department handled 17,588 calls for service and details in 2011 compared to 17,440 in 2010. The Department was called to assist the Fire Department in 10% of these details. The busiest times of the day for the Department as reflected in details were 4PM-5PM (1,178), 3PM - 4PM (1,130), 5PM - 6PM (1,097), and 11PM - 12AM (957). These time periods account for 25% of the total calls.

The Department handled 697 auto accident reports in 2011 compared to 579 in 2010. Of these, 18% involved injuries, .01% were OVI related, and none were fatal. The Ohio Department of Public Safety Accident Stats for 2010 reveals that statewide the percentage of accidents involving injuries was 24.8%, with 4.30% involving OVI drivers and 0.32% involving fatalities.

The auto accident reports on public roadways increased from 471 in 2010 to 553 in 2011.

2011 Organization

The Blue Ash Police Department employs 50 full-time, part-time, and volunteer personnel, 35 of which are full-time sworn police officers.

Notable Events

In March, Lieutenant Paul W. Hartinger graduated from the FBI National Academy in Quantico, Virginia. The FBI National Academy is a professional course of study for leaders and managers of state and local police, sheriffs' departments, military police organizations, and federal law enforcement agencies.

In March, five suspects were arrested for a Kidnapping and Robbery that occurred at a local hotel. The victim set up a meeting with one of the arrestees through a telephone chat line. The victim, who suffered minor injuries, was held in his hotel room by some of the suspects, while others attempted to make withdrawals using his atm cards.

In July, a 15 year old male was arrested in connection with a residential burglary that occurred on Classic Drive. Subsequent investigation led to an additional charge of Receiving Stolen Property, after he was found to be in possession of stolen property taken from a vehicle parked at another residence. A dozen reports of thefts from vehicles in neighborhoods off of Cornell Road had been reported.

In September, Officer Beth Roach successfully completed D.A.R.E. (Drug Abuse Resistance Education) Officer Training and certification at the Ohio Peace Officer Training Academy in London, Ohio. She received instruction in teaching methods, school law, internet safety, community policing, current youth trends, and narcotics. This intense two-week training also consisted of education in the Elementary and Middle School D.A.R.E. curriculum, mock teaching exercises, and school visitations.

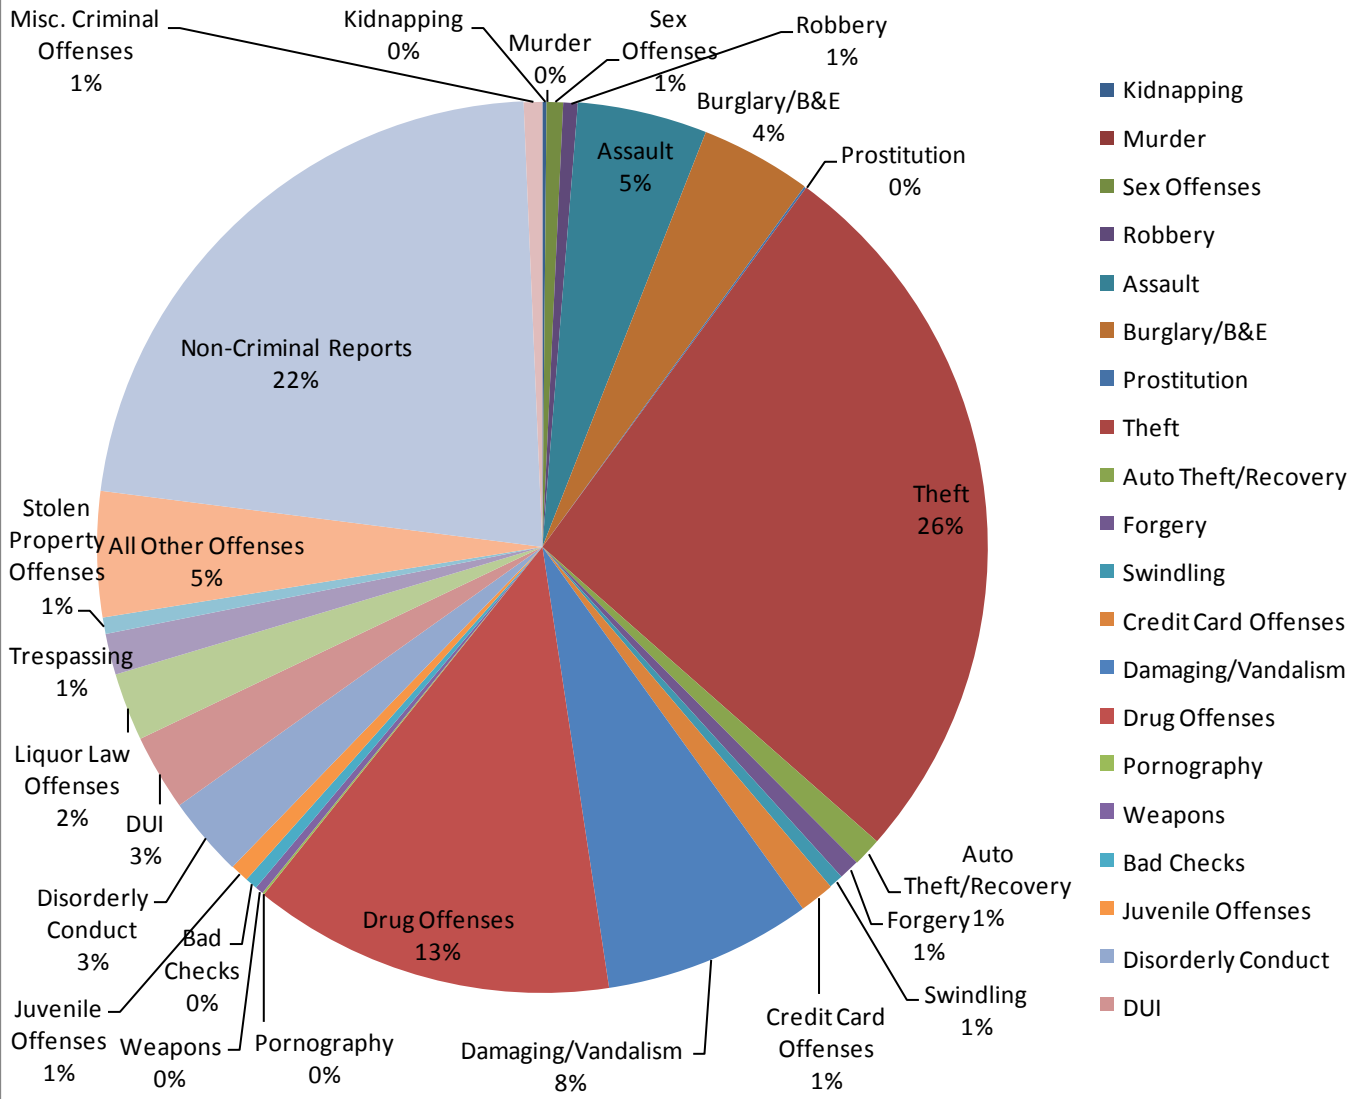

In September, undercover Blue Ash Police Officers arrested two women for stealing a purse from a 79 year old female in the Kroger parking. Officers had been assigned to monitor the area due to at least ten other theft offenses in the shopping center.

In October, an investigation into dog fighting was initiated. A search warrant was executed with the assistance of the Hamilton County Police Association SWAT team, the U.S. Department of Agriculture, and the SPCA. Two arrests were made and 12 dogs were seized during the search.

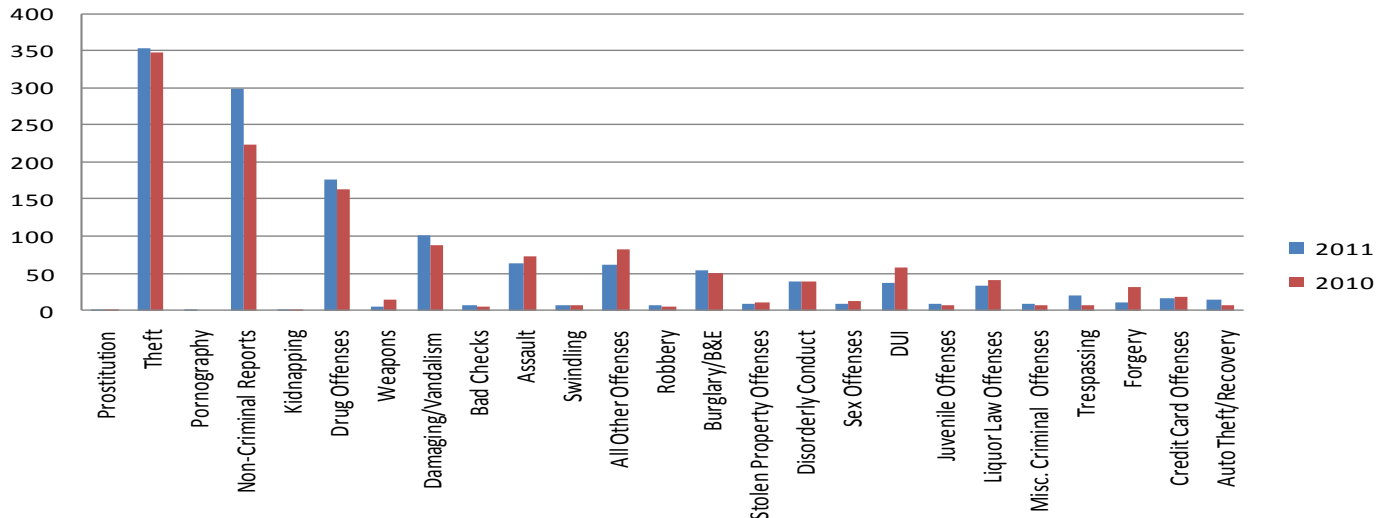

In November, the department was recognized as a Patriotic Employer by The National Committee for Employer Support of the Guard and Reserve (ESGR) for supporting employee participation in America's National Guard and Reserve Force. The ESGR is a Defense Department agency that promotes cooperation between civilian employers and their Guard and Reserve employees. This is the second time that the Blue Ash Police Department has been recognized, the first being in 2004. At present, the police department has two of its officers serving in the Ohio Army National Guard, one of whom is away on active duty.
